

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Luis Cruz Azaceta, Travelling Show, 2024, Acrylic on canvas, 72 x 96 in

Moving Soon

October 5 - November 15, 2025

Little River | 274 NE 67th Street, Miami, FL 33138

Pan American Art Projects is pleased to announce Moving Soon, a collective exhibition marking the gallery's upcoming relocation this December. Bringing together works by artists from diverse countries and backgrounds, the show includes pieces across multiple mediums, some never before exhibited, others not seen in many years.

Unlike a traditional exhibition, Moving Soon embraces the transitional state of a gallery in the midst of moving. Visitors will encounter an environment that is intentionally unfinished: works may be displayed informally, temporarily stored, or hung in unexpected ways. Racks of artworks might be accessible for browsing, while other pieces could already be packed and ready to leave. Each visit may reveal a different experience, reflecting the fluid nature of the move itself.

This live, evolving exhibition offers a rare opportunity to witness a gallery in motion, both literally and conceptually. By highlighting a wide range of artistic voices across generations, mediums, and geographies, Moving Soon captures the spontaneity of change while celebrating the enduring presence of art.

The participating artists come from varied cultural and creative contexts, yet their works are united by a shared spirit of inquiry. Together, they invite viewers to reflect on memory, visibility, and the lasting relevance of art during times of transition.

For more information, please contact: miami@panamericanart.com